

The Future is Now: Artificial Intelligence in Inpatient Pharmacy Practice

Jacob King, PharmD | PGY1 Pharmacy Resident

Wellstar Cobb Medical Center

Wellstar Health System is Accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education as a Provider of Continuing Pharmacy Education.

There is no fee for this program.

This program has been approved for 1 contact hour (0.1 CEU).

This program is an Application-based CPE activity.

UAN: 0483-0000-26-007-L99-P

UAN: 0483-0000-26-007-L99-T

Target Audience: This activity is intended for pharmacists and pharmacy technicians.

Date: June 10, 2026 Times: 8:00 am – 9:00 am (Cobb Barrett B) and 3:15 pm – 4:15 pm (Cobb Auditorium)

Location: Wellstar Cobb Medical Center and Microsoft Teams

Learning Objectives: At the conclusion of this activity, participants will be able to:

Pharmacists

- Describe current artificial intelligence (AI) tools used in healthcare.
- Assess opportunities for integrating artificial intelligence into existing pharmacy workflows.
- Evaluate the influence of AI-driven decision support systems on medication safety and clinical outcomes.
- Discuss ethical and legal considerations related to AI adoption in pharmacy practice.

Technicians

- Describe current artificial intelligence (AI) tools used in healthcare.
- Assess opportunities for integrating artificial intelligence into existing pharmacy workflows.
- Discuss ethical and legal considerations related to AI adoption in pharmacy practice.

Visit <https://wellstar.learningexpressce.com/> to login or sign-up

Participants who attend the entire activity, complete and pass the post-test (>70%), and complete the activity evaluation will receive CE credit. Credit will be uploaded electronically and available in CPE Monitor after completion of required elements.